

Clean hands? It's OK to ask.

If you haven't seen your health-care worker clean their hands, you can say:

- “I know you probably washed your hands recently, but could you please clean them again?”
- “Did you clean your hands before coming to see me?”

Clean hands save lives!