What is Interior Health Doing to Address the Overdose Crisis?

Interior Health delivers mental health and substance use services from prevention through to treatment.

RANGE OF RELATIONSHIP WITH SUBSTANCES

	NO USE	EXPERIMENTAL USE	OCCASIONAL USE	MILD TO MODERATE SUBSTANCE USE DISORDER	SEVERE SUBSTANCE USE DISORDER
Education & Training
Data Sharing & Analysis
Communications
Community Response
Safe Prescribing
Peer Engagement
Naloxone Distribution & Training
Distribution & Collection of Harm Reduction Supplies
Wrap-around/Connecting Treatment Services
Detox/Daytox with Opioid Agonist Treatment
Opioid Agonist Treatment (OAT)
Residential Treatment Facilities
Overdose Prevention Sites
Supervised Consumption Services (SCS)
Intensive Case Management
Tertiary Treatment

Individuals may receive more than one of these services at a time.

This graph intends to show some but not all of what Interior Health is doing. Please ask for further details.

