3.0 POLICY

3.1 IH Obligation

- (a) IH is not responsible for the loss, damage or destruction of Client belongings that Clients have not turned over to IH staff for safekeeping.
- (b) IH has an obligation to ensure Client belongings taken into safekeeping are safe from damage and/or loss while the Client is in IH's care.
- (c) IH has a greater obligation to incapable/incapacitated Clients than the standard obligation to Clients as set out above.

3.2 Client Belongings at Time of Admission

(a) Clients or their Personal Representatives will be advised at the time the Client is admitted to send home all belongings, except those which the Client requires to manage his/her daily living activities. Clients who are unable to send belongings home should be advised of the availability of safekeeping options. If Clients opt to retain their belongings they should be advised that IH is not responsible for any loss or damage.

AK0700 CLIENT VALUABLES & PERSONAL EFFECTS

- (b) Clients may, upon request, choose to surrender to IH any belongings which the Client is unable to send home and are not required by the Client to manage his/her daily living activities. Illicit substances permitted under the exemption¹ must be retained by the Client during their stay as personal effects.
- (c) Any belongings surrendered to IH for safekeeping will be considered to be valuables.
- (d) Any belongings not surrendered to IH will be considered as personal effects.
- (e) Patient's own medications should be handled per PHK0700 Patient's Own Medications and Natural Health Products Policy
- (f) Weapons and other prohibited items should be handled per the Prohibited Item Policy -AW0650.
- (g) Illicit substances not permitted under the exemption¹ should be handled as per Pharmacy Policy PHK0600 Controlled Substances.
- (h) For Clients 18 years of age or older, a cumulative total of 2.5 grams or less of opioids, cocaine, methamphetamines, and/or MDMA is permitted for personal possession under the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act.¹ Employees are not responsible for weighing or determining whether illicit substances in a Client's possession meet this criteria. Employees are not responsible for handling illicit substances in a Client's possession. If personal effects need to be handled and the Client is unable to assist (eg. incapable or incapacitated), employees should avoid touching the substances directly or use appropriate personal protection (eg. mask, gloves) when handling.

3.3 Disposition of Client Valuables

- (a) Client valuables in the safekeeping of IH will be released to the Client or their Personal Representative at the time of discharge from IH's care.
- (b) Deceased Client's personal effects will be removed from the Client or the Client's care area (patient room), inventoried, documented, witnessed and placed into safekeeping with any Client valuables/personal effects that may have already been placed in safekeeping and only released to the Client's personal representative

Note: Release of Client's belongings is allowed for Coroner's cases where the body has not yet been released by the Coroner.

3.4 Unclaimed Client Valuables and Personal Effects

- (a) Reasonable attempts (minimum three attempts to contact) will be made to contact the Client (document on Valuables Envelope) if valuables are left behind after discharge.
- (b) Valuables unclaimed after 30 days will be stored, disposed of or donated to an appropriate recipient at the discretion of the local Administrator.

AK0700 CLIENT VALUABLES & PERSONAL EFFECTS

(c) For the management of illicit substances left behind by clients, please refer to Pharmacy Policy - PHK0600 Controlled Substances.

Note: For the purpose of this section, determining an appropriate recipient will take into consideration such factors as the value of the item(s), the type of item(s), conflicts of interest, ethical considerations and costs associated with storage or disposal etc.

3.5 Liability for Losses

No claims pertaining to loss/damage of Client valuables will be compensated unless it is determined that IH staff was remiss in the handling/safekeeping of Client belongings. (see IH Policy – AK0300 Claims Management) Where complaints regarding Client valuables are accepted at the Patient Care Quality Office the Patient Care Quality Officer shall determine if compensation for lost/damaged valuables will be provided. Compensation for lost/damaged valuables will come from the Cost Centre where the loss occurred.

4.0 PROCEDURE

Acute Care Inpatients – see Appendix A Emergency & Outpatients – see Appendix B Long-Term Care – see Appendix C

Site/Facility Specific Guidelines/Protocols

Each site/facility will be responsible for developing site/facility specific guidelines/protocols for implementing the policy taking into account available resources.
